PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This unmodernised Grade II listed property has a white stucco facade and encompasses approximately 25,000 square feet and is created through the amalgamation of two adjoining buildings.

With its grand Victorian architecture and design, the property offers an excellent opportunity for restoration to rekindle its former glory. The property was built in 1856 as part of the important Lancaster Gate development.

Formerly a hotel, it has 60 guest bedrooms accessible by either a lift or the grand staircase, as well as spacious reception rooms with high ceilings and deep skirting boards.

There is enormous potential for converting the property into serviced apartments or a residential development subject to planning permissions.
